“ ‘Akzeptanz’ ...vill Leit
soen, si akzeptéieren dat
mee dann heescht dat un sech just, si wëllen näischt domadder ze dinn hunn. ”

“ 'Acceptance'...many people say they accept it, but then it just means they don't want anything to do with it.”

Key issues identified

- SexEd still focuses mainly on pregnancy prevention, heterosexuality and cis bodies.
- Teachers or educators are not adequately trained on the topics.
- Existing educational material lack LGBTIQ+ content.
- School is not perceived as a safe space for queer staff.
- Hate speech goes unaddressed: some victims have no choice but to leave the school.

What participants expect

- Mandatory teacher training on LGBTIQ+ topics.
- Integrate LGBTIQ+ topics transversally across school subjects.
- Reduce taboos against SexEd by creating age-appropriate educational material.
- Implicate LGBTIQ+ associations in the conception of queer-friendly school material.
- Take active measures against homophobia and hate speech.
